

Hopping Hens Here! (Little Golden Book)

Special signs have been delivered to the library, and Lionel and Leona are in charge of hanging them up. But one very important word is missing from the signs and soon there is lots of silliness going on, including hens hopping through the stacks and monkeys sliding down the stair railings! Fans of the Between the Lions series on PBS will love this colorful storybook. Between the Lions was recently named Best Childrens Program by the Television Critics Association. It has also been endorsed by the National Education Association, the nations largest teachers organization. READING LEVEL: Ages 4-8
