

Young Boss: A Millennials Guide To Leadership

This book was written by a young leader, for young leaders. Young Boss: A Millennials Guide To Leadership is a quick read that sheds light on what young leaders can expect as they enter into their first management positions. The author offers up real world examples, simple advice and valuable information to young professionals. Miller's straight forward writing starts by reflecting on real life examples that have helped guide and shape him throughout his career. He encourages readers to pay attention to the managers and leaders around them as they're learning the style that fits them. Readers will read about the unique value a young manager brings to their organization. They will find tips for keeping employees engaged, working with under performing employees, and much more. This book is a great resource for young managers as they take on the next steps in their career, and a quick refresher for those that are already established.
